

south florida ALBUM

FUNDRAISERS • CELEBRATIONS • PARTIES • CORPORATE EVENTS

Guests aboard Royal Caribbean International's newest cruise raise $650,000 to benefit United Way of Miami-Dade

Miami philanthropists sailed away aboard Royal Caribbean International's most adventurous cruise Symphony of the Seas to help fight for a stronger Miami. The two-night cruise raised $650,000 to benefit United Way of Miami-Dade's work in education, financial stability and health.

Aboard the ship, guests enjoyed round-the-clock fun all while giving back to the community. With a sail away party complete with fireworks from the Port of Miami, a stop in Nassau, Bahamas and amenities galore, Symphony of the Seas provided guests with high-end dining, the tallest slide at sea, a live orchestra, a variety of entertaining marquee shows and much more.

Symphony of the Seas honorary chairs were Constance and Mike B. Fernandez; event co-chairs were Conchi and Tony Argiz and Carol and Ed Williamson. Top sponsors include: MBAF, Cisco, Insight, Greenberg Traurig, LLP, City National Bank and TD Bank.

Conchi and Tony Argiz with Joan Morrison, Alvin Lloyd Brown, Mike and Nelly Farra and Stuart Rosenberg

Symphony of the Seas event co-chairs Carol and Ed Williamson with Richard Fain of Royal Caribbean Cruises, Ltd. and Colleen Fain

Shirley English, United Way President and CEO with Maria C. Alonso and Baldwin English

Matthew B. Gerson and Steven J. Brodie aboard Symphony of the Seas

Alexandra Villoch and Cesar Mendoza with Judy Zeder at the VIP Reception

Nick Miceli, Alex and Maite Adams with Felipe Basulto

Vicki Lopez, Cathy Alexander and Soledad Picon

Maria and Juan del Busto with Miriam and Alfonso Macedo

